

Position title: MANAGER, CROP PROTECTION REGULATORY

Reporting line: Director International Regulatory Affairs

Key responsibilities

1. Regulatory Issues Management	Implement globally harmonised industry strategies by creating industry consensus, developing related positions and statements. Develop action plans and ensure their implementation; drive project teams to consensus. Keep track of scientific and global regulatory developments and identify upcoming issues.
2. Work with international organisations and represent the industry position	Develop strong working relationships with non-governmental international organisations such as OECD and represent industry at related formal meetings. Establish close collaboration with CropLife regional associations and company advocacy network. Develop and maintain technical and regulatory expert network and build up relevant in-house expertise.
3. Project team management	Manage selected project teams which deal with regulatory issues. Facilitate the work of the relevant project teams by establishing, maintaining and coordinating an appropriate infrastructure. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Act as secretary: prepare meetings and meeting documents, consolidate comments, write minutes.</li> <li>• Lead work of Project Teams; ensure that their work is prioritized and focused to deliver results; co-ordinate their activities and ensure the exchange of information and cooperation with relevant CropLife staff and other teams.</li> <li>• Communicate/liaise with the network of experts, company and regional association contacts.</li> </ul>
4. Communication	Work together with Communication and Advocacy Director to develop communication and advocacy tools.
5. Project Management	Support establishment of budgets and operating plans. Coordinate selected projects and manage related budgets.

Required profile

- Candidate has significant industry experience, including with a research-focused company in crop protection
- Minimum 5 years work experience
- Completed university education; Master in Chemistry, Biology or similar
- Project management experience
- Fluent in English, French of advantage
- Able to travel up to 20% of her/his time

This full-time position is based in Brussels, Belgium.

Required Skills

- Excellent interpersonal skills and proven ability to work in a team-oriented way and develop team awareness
- Excellent networking skills, must be able to proactively network at international meetings
- Excellent presentation skills
- Diligent, persistent and committed
- Curious with a genuine interest in the industry issues and policy challenges such as sustainability, modern agriculture, pesticide policy challenges
- Open-minded and able to work effectively in culturally diverse environment
- Strong leadership and coordination skills

CropLife International and its global network are the voice and leading advocates for the plant science industry (www.croplife.org).

Please send your application to hr@croplife.org.

Brussels; 1 January 2017